

Ferrero is the 1st food company for reputation in the ranking of the 100 best companies and the 3rd biggest chocolate producer and Confectionery Company in the world.

Ferrero is anything but ordinary. Since our humble beginnings started in 1946 in the small town of Alba in Italy, our products have surprised and delighted millions of people all over the world. We have a truly progressive and global outlook, driven and dynamic, yet always taking the long-term view.

Today we are a global organization that currently operating in 22 factories in 5 continents with more than 30.000 employees all over the world. We, as Ferrero, welcome a diverse range of talented new people into our extended family. Our continued growth in new markets presents exciting challenges, alongside significant opportunities for career development.

Let's be a part of this success story!

Let's spread the sweetness together!

We are looking a long term Electrical/Electronic Engineering Trainee for our Company. The qualifications and responsibilities are mentioned below.

Qualifications:

- 1st year student in post-graduate, completed the bachelor's degree or 4th year student in bachelor's degree from Electrical and Electronic Engineering,
- Having internship experience in multinational companies is a plus,
- Being interested in automation and PLC,
- Fluent in English,
- Good level of MS Office applications,
- Ambitious to develop himself/herself and learn new things,
- Result oriented and strong in analytical thinking.

Job Description:

- Supporting the maintenance team in;
  - Maintaining automation systems (Siemens, Rockwell).
  - Modifying/updating existing programs.
  - Scheduling and executing calibration activities.
  - New projects.